

Prof. Nicola Montano M.D.,Ph.D.

Director of Functional Neurosurgery Operative Unit at Fondazione Policlinico Universitario Agostino Gemelli IRCCS, Roma, Italy

Prof. Nicola Montano M.D., Ph.D., is the Director of Functional Neurosurgery Operative Unit at Fondazione Policlinico Universitario Agostino Gemelli IRCCS in Rome, Italy. He completed the Neurosurgery residency (2008) and the Ph.D program in Neuroscience (2012) at Catholic University in Rome, Italy. In 2017, he obtained the Ministry of Education, University and Research (MIUR) Neurosurgery Associate Professor License. His main areas of interest are cranial and spinal neuro-oncology, epilepsy surgery, surgical treatment of trigeminal neuralgia and neuropathic pain and minimally invasive spine surgery. He is a member of editorial board of international, peer-reviewed journals in the field of neurosurgery and medical science. He has been serving as a reviewer for various international scientific journals. He published numerous peer-reviewed papers in international journals in the fields of neuro-oncology, spine surgery and functional neurosurgery.